[Reminder of page intentionally left blank]

Please don't close our doors, we love what we do here. Please let us graduate and have something to start our lives with. If it wasn't for Virginia College and its lessons and experiences, I honestly don't know what I would be doing. Coming to school is a major part of my life, and I look forward to coming here every single day because I know these days are not only setting me up for success, but these days are a lasting memory as to how I got started doing what I love. I need my chance to be able to move out on my own and start taking care of myself entirely. Words can't express enough the feeling that is generated when I know almost 13 in session, I'm a 22 year old who doesn't like weekends anymore because I would rather be at Virginia College. This is a moment in all of our lives to say "we did it". We graduated, "We made it". Please don't close our school.
